WORKING WITH THE LOCAL COMMUNITY

We are very excited to announce the collaboration with a group of young girls lead by Nora Ngobeni and her group of budding entertainers. Nora lives in the nearby town of Acornhoek and works with young girls from the ages of 5 – 16 teaching them the heritage of the Shangaan Culture, dancing and singing. We are supporting Nora and her team and they will be showcasing their talent at Phelwana Game Lodge as entertainment for our guests.

ALL SYSTEMS GO!

We are two weeks away from our official opening and have been very busy with all the last minute furnishings and decorating of the chalets. The month of June will mark our official opening and we are proud to announce our first function on the 14th of June, our first wedding.

We have also collected our new game viewer which will be used at Phelwana Game Lodge for game drives. We now have two game viewers to accommodate guests on morning and afternoon drives.

CAPTURING THE MOMENT!

Derek and Chris at work taking photographs

We have been so fortunate to work with Derek and Chris Fourie-Lipman from Webthings who are designing our website and handling all of our photography needs! A huge thank you to them for their enthusiasm, energy and input and it was a pleasure having them at Phelwana. Our website will be viral shortly.

HEAVY DUTY LIFTING

Now that we have entered the dry season, it provided us with the perfect opportunity to grade the roads. The roads are now navigable for our guests and have been skillfully constructed to cope with the rainy season towards the end of the year.

OUR FIRST WEDDING!

The 14th of June 2014 marks a momentous occasion for the NEW Phelwana Game Lodge. We will be hosting our first wedding for 65 guests at Phelwana Game Lodge. The Phelwana main lodge and restaurant will provide the idyllic setting for the reception and will be beautifully decorated with flowers by a special friend, Wendy Beretta, and add elegance to the magical venue, the Phelwana Room.

A SNEAK PREAK AT OUR SPREAD

Our Executive Chef, Hannes Barnard, has been very busy compiling menus for the Lodge and he promised our guests an impressive spread for breakfast, high tea and dinner. As in true family tradition, dinners are a great way to sit down and share the happenings of the day and no better way than enjoying a traditional cooked meal with your favorite bottle of wine. At Phelwana we source only the best produce thereby offering great quality and presentation making your dining experience a memorable one!
